

Mt. Cross Ministries – Day Camp Liability Release

Day Camp programs include a variety of activities that often include warm-ups, games, group initiatives, other rigorous physical challenges, and use/proximity to dangerous supplies (like archery, swimming, sun exposure, hot glue, scissors, etc.). Mt. Cross has worked hard to provide me with the proper equipment, trained facilitators, and the necessary basic skills to be successful. However, these activities are not without risk, and certain risks cannot be eliminated without destroying the unique character of the activities. Participation in these activities may cause damage to your equipment, accidental injury, illness, or in extreme cases, permanent injury or death. I accept full responsibility for the inherent risk identified herein, and those risks not fully identified. By signing below, you are giving permission for your identified child to participate fully in day camp activities and will not hold Mt. Cross, the host church, or any staff member or volunteer responsible for bodily injury, death, or loss/damage to any personal property as a result of participation in these activities.
